I ACKNOWLEDGE that, due to Privacy legislation, it is necessary for the Queensland Family History Society[Inc] to have permission in writing for the Society to publish authors' addresses with their stories in their journal Queensland Family Historian. I further ACKNOWLEDGE that any reference to living people in any story of mine that the Society chooses to publish must make that person unidentifiable by name and/or address unless that person has also given permission in writing for such details to be published and the Society is furnished with a copy of that permission.

In light of above, I HEREBY GIVE permission for my name and address details, as listed, to be published in line with the Society's policy of author details being printed with their family stories to facilitate correspondence from interested parties.

I also list my phone and email address (if any) in case the QFHS Editorial Group needs to contact me to answer any publication questions.
