"MEN of QUEENSLAND"

THE purpose of this publication has been to group together the leaders of Queensland's public, ecclesiastical, professional and business life as existant in 1928, and to place them and their activities on record in a worthy manner.

Since the work of assembling the caricatures and biographies of those who appear in this volume was commenced, five have crossed the Great Divide. Each of these late gentlemen played a noble part in the history of this State, and the publishers are of the opinion that the book would have been incomplete had the names of Mr. Justice Woolcock, Mr. J. J. Knight, Mr. M. Baldwin, Mr. T. J. Rothwell and Mr. H. J. Diddams been omitted from it.

The passing of time will but serve to enhance the value of "Men of Queensland." In years to come those who turn its pages will find it rich in sentiment and in historical value. Families will treasure it, and children will feel honoured to know that they have sprung from stock that played an active part in the life of our great State.

The thanks of the publishers are offered to all who, by their courtesy, interest and co-operation, have made this production possible, and it is hoped that they will find genuine pleasure in the perusal of its pages.
